LOCAL NEWS.

Board of Supervisors meet Monday, February 10th.
Mr. C. C. Bloxom, of Norfolk, is at Accomac C. H., the guest of his niece, Mrs. Dr. J. L. DeCormis.
Mrs. Frederick Hopkins, of West Grove, Pa., is at Accomac C. H., the guest of Mrs. George Milliner.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Ross, who have been quite sick for the past week, are improving and will soon be out again.
Mr. Levin T. Nelson left Thursday for a visit of ten days or more to his son, Mr. Edwin Nelson, Wilmington, Del.
The ground hog saw his shadow last Sunday, and according to the legend, there will be forty days of bad weather.
Capt. Irvin Sturgis, who has been quite ill at the home of Capt. W. H. Lang for the past month, is much improved.
Miss Florence Browne, of Accomac, left for Baltimore on last Friday to spend several weeks with her cousin, Mrs. Louis McLane Tiffany.
Miss Lizzie Parramore, of Accomac C. H., left Tuesday on a visit of several weeks to her sister, Mrs. Harry C. Mabie at East Orange, N. J.
Mr. Thos. W. Blackstone, of Accomac C. H., was called to Old Point on Monday, by the illness of his brother, Judge J. W. G. Blackstone.
Mr. Richard W. Ayres, of Cape Charles, confined at late at the home of his mother at Accomac C. H., with measles and grip, returned to his home on Monday.
The county treasurer, Mr. A. J. Lilliston, authorizes us to say that all persons sending warrants and school orders to him must enclose stamp for return check.
Charles Jacob, colored, of Norfolk, arrested near Onancock a few days ago by Constable Tank Kellam, and wanted at Seaford, Del., for a felony committed there, was taken to that place by rail on Thursday.
Mrs. Maggie Bagwell, of Accomac C. H., left Tuesday, for Florida, to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Thos. B. Quinby. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Maggie Leatherbury and two children.
An important business meeting of Parksley Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., will be held on Monday evening, February 10th, and at the request of the recording secretary all the members are urged to be present. It is the regular meeting of the council.
Warner Ames, special commissioner, will, on Saturday, the 15th day of February next, at 2 o'clock p. m., in the town of Onancock, sell at public auction the house and lot of which Andrew Sneed died seized and possessed, located in said town. For information, see posters or special commissioner.
Mr. James H. Twyford, Justice of the Peace, and a worthy citizen, died Friday, January 31st, at his home near Cashville, aged 72 years. Funeral services were held at his late home and interment made in the family burying ground near Cashville on Sunday, Rev. R. F. Staples conducting the services.
In porkers this season upper Accomac leads in "light as well as heavy weights." One slaughtered by Capt. Staton F. Byrd, of Poulson, a few weeks ago weighed 98 pounds, and lately Mr. Columbus Chase, of the same neighborhood, who started in the race with him killed 20, 18 months old and stey-fied 11 months, which tipped the beam at 17 and 21 pounds, respectively.
New advertisements in this issue to which special attention is invited: P. S. Stewart, agent Rasin-Monumental Fertilizer Co.; L. M. Drew, Saxis, dry fish chum; L. B. Mason, Grangeville, carts &c.; R. L. Shield & Co., Onancock, sale of white goods; J. W. Barnes, Bloxom, fertilizers &c.; W. S. Dickinson & Son, Pocomoke City, specials; Leatherbury, Belote & Co., Onancock, new goods.
Roy D. White, attorney for Mrs. Wm. T. Gibbons and others, will sell at public auction at Gargatha on Saturday, February 29th, 2:30 o'clock, all that tract or parcel of land, known as the Fosque land, situated on the county road between Nelsonia and Gargatha, containing 49 acres, and bounded by the lands of E. A. Baker, William T. Bundick and others. It is fine trucking land and has valuable timber on it.
Rev. John K. Goode, the faithful and beloved pastor of the Drummondtown Baptist Church for nearly four years, left on last Tuesday, accompanied by his mother, wife and child, for Richmond, and after a visit of a few days to relatives in that city will leave for their new home at Barnwell, S. C. They will make new friends in South Carolina but none more sincerely attached to them than those they left on the Eastern shore.
The desirable real estate known as the S. T. Jones property, situated in the town of Parksley, will be sold to the highest bidder on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, on February 22, 1908. There are 28 building lots, a fine dwelling house of 15 rooms, heated by hot water and in good repair, also 5 business lots. Will be sold as a whole or in parts to suit. For full particulars see posters and advertisement in this paper, or write Chas. E. Lane, Parksley, Va.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Chincoteague.
The old and young have been enjoying the skating on our ponds for the last few days.
The High School examinations are in progress here and a good showing is being made by the pupils.
An up-to-date storehouse is being erected by Mr. Wm. Sharpley on the Eastern Side of Island, better known as Deep Hole.
Mr. D. S. Hankel, of Newport News, grand master of the Jr. O. U. A. M., addressed the members of that order here on Monday night.
Steamer Wicomeco, which went ashore some weeks ago, and afterwards bought at auction and floated by Wheaton and Babbitt, is now on the railway at Norfolk for repairs.
Mr. C. W. Duncan, now of Baltimore, but who spent many years here as hotel man, merchant and light-house keeper, is visiting friends at this place. He is accompanied by his wife and son.
A petition is to be presented at the Wilmington M. E. Conference, which meets March 18th, for a minister at a higher salary here, and an effort is being made at this time to secure the necessary funds of the members and their friends.
Mr. Elwood Coleburn, of Wilmington, is here the guest of his brother, George; Mrs. N. Tunnell and daughter, Alice, of this place, are visiting friends of Ocean View, Del.; Mr. J. E. Holland has as his guest his mother from Baltimore.
A petition for the incorporation of the business part of the Island is being circulated here and with one or two exceptions has the approval of the business and representative people. An act looking to that end will be asked of present Legislature.
Arrivals at Atlantic Hotel this week: M. J. Byrd, J. C. Wescott, C. L. Ward, A. W. Fashe, W. J. Morris, Chas. McKee, J. B. Wrightson, W. J. Evans, Baltimore; W. D. Spencer, W. T. Matthews, Philadelphia; S. A. Bowen, Clarence Powell, Wilmington; A. W. Clayton, Chas. Debow, Asbury Park, N. J.; A. J. Gibson, New York; M. L. Todd, Fred Howard, Salisbury; George Truitt, Girdleiree; S. S. Tyler, H. R. Boggs, Accomac.
The Winter Quarter Lightship, which went adrift during the storm of 24th ult., is now in Wilmington for repairs. The crew for the most part from this place owe their lives, it is stated, to the hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee." With the hole flooded and pumps refusing to work, they had about abandoned all hope when Engineer West started the hymn. One after another, the men took up the air and this gave them renewed courage, which enabled them to patch up the pumps and work them until a revenue cutter hove in sight and towed the disabled ship to port.
Temperanceville.
Mrs. Jacob is visiting friends at Parksley.
Mrs. W. L. Nock, who has been ill, is improving.
The boys in this vicinity are enjoying the ice pond.
Miss Eunice Mathews spent the week's end in Onancock.
Mr. Chris Jones and family have returned. No place like home.
Are you coming to the "Hall," February 14th, to hear "Dr. Cure-All?"
Come, boys, on Friday night, and find out how to make the "Imitation Sweetheart," genuine.
The Temperanceville High School will give an entertainment, February 14, 8 o'clock. Public cordially invited. Moonlight nights.
Dr. Neville's horse left him on the road, Friday. The shafts broke off. The horse is the injured party. The faithful "George" went to the rescue.
Mr. and Mrs. John Rayfield, of Mappsville, were entertained on January 27th by Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Mathews. The hostess served a Christmas feast.
Oak Hall.
Madame rumor has it that bells will soon be ringing again matrimonially—this time for one of our phone managers.
Mr. L. Frank Gladding and bride now occupy their new residence in our village, and very welcome accessions to our community.
Quite an enjoyable social was given recently to the young people at the home of Mr. E. T. Taylor, about 35 ladies and gentlemen being present.
The news of the death of Mrs. A. S. Taylor, wife of the Justice of the Peace, was received here with sincere regret. Only a few months ago death claimed a worthy son.
Among the recent visitors to friends in town were Miss Berle Taylor, of Bullbeggan, at home of Mr. E. T. Taylor, Miss Lillian Justice, of Jenkins Bridge, and Miss Beulah East at home of Mr. S. J. Revell.
Oak Hall division of the Produce Exchange was reorganized for the present year on the 25th ult. The only change in officers was the election of Mr. Geo. A. Smith, general director, in place of Mr. Samuel J. Revell.
Don't miss the opportunity of buying anything in white goods at away below their market value—that is what we are offering between the 11th and 15th inclusive, the date of our annual white sale.
R. L. Shield & Co.
Just received car load of Florida shingles—best heart and perfection heart.
J. W. Rogers & Bro., Onley, Va.

Onancock.

Mr. Henry F. Powell is still on the sick list.
Skating on the creek has been very good since Monday, and large crowds are enjoying it.
The sale of ten cent goods by Mess. Leatherbury, Belote & Co. is attracting many buyers.
The Steamer Accomac of the Virginia Oyster Police force has been frozen up in our harbor since Sunday.
Dr. John R. Ames left Thursday for Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. He spent a short time with his parents in town before reporting for duty.
Miss Eglantine Horsey, of New Church, a pupil of the High School, who has been dangerously ill for several days is somewhat improved.
Mr. Everett J. Belote has bought of B. T. Coard and others, the land on East Main street, upon which the storehouse of Burton, and buildings occupied by Uzzle, stood.
The drama, "Miss Fearless & Co.," will be produced at Bell's Hall, Accomac C. H., Friday the 14th inst. The promised performance two weeks ago was prevented by the snow storm.
Mr. Frank Bain, representing the Grand Council of Virginia, Royal Arcanum, was in town Tuesday looking after the interests of the order. He attempted to visit the Chincoteague Council Monday, but was unable to reach the Island on account of ice.
The regular meeting of the D. A. R. was held at the chapter house Tuesday afternoon. The meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy called for Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John P. L. Hopkins was postponed on account of the weather. The next meeting will be held the first Saturday in April.
The Rev. Mr. Cornick was called to Norfolk by telegram Thursday last to see a former parishioner, Mr. E. C. Harrison, of Charles City county, who was being treated in Joseph's hospital. Mr. Harrison's illness having terminated fatally, Mr. Cornick accompanied his remains to his home near Westover.
The Sloop George W. Woodward, belonging to Mr. James T. Sommers, of Northern Accomac, was captured by the State Steamer Accomack, Capt. Jarvis, Friday, charged with dredging oysters on birds Rock, Pocomoke Sound. She was towed to Onancock, where at a trial before Justice Parker, the vessel and men were held for the grand jury. Bail was furnished by the owner. The State was represented by the Attorney for the Commonwealth, Mr. S. James Turlington, and Mr. Warner Ames appeared for the defense.
Pungoteague.
Captain Joseph C. Boggs has just purchased the handsome residence and fine and most desirable farm, situated on Nandua creek, of Mr. Lewis Catagni, of Roanoke, Va.
Our esteemed young friend, Mr. Milton B. Ames, of Pungoteague, recently engaged in the banking business in New York City, has returned home to the delight and gratification of his many friends and relatives, and rumor reports that he has accepted the position of assistant cashier of the Keller Bank.
Messrs. William E. Godsey & Co., formerly of Norfolk, but now permanently located at Nandua Wharf, have leased a certain piece of land of Capt. J. C. Boggs, adjacent to his wharf, on which they are erecting a large barrel factory, 125 feet long by 35 feet wide, to manufacture truck barrels for their large trade.
Mr. John T. Bull has just returned to his old home after an absence of more than two years, engaged in his professional duties, extending over many States. Mr. Bull is now visiting his sister, Mrs. James K. Ayres, whose heart is gladdened by his return. Tom is a fine fellow and is cordially greeted by his old friends and acquaintances here.
The skating on our pond is elegant and the young folks seem to be enjoying themselves, but we regret to say, that Miss Williams from Western Virginia, visiting Miss Cleve Martin, of Harborton, unfortunately while skating broke through the ice, but was immediately rescued from her perilous accident by the assistance of Mr. Benjamin Read, who fortunately was near by.
Onley.
Mrs. Chester Savage is visiting her parents on Chincoteague this week.
Mr. Bailey Belote, of Willis Wharf, of late has been the guest of Mr. E. J. Savage.
Miss Anna Hoge, ill lately at Onley, has improved sufficiently to resume her duties as music teacher at Wachapreague.
The Sack Social, given by the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church of this place recently, was a success. The collection amounted to $33.00.
The amusing comedy, "A Servant Wanted," will be presented by the young ladies of the Baptist Sunday school, in the town hall at Onley, on the evening of Friday, February 14, 7:30 o'clock. Refreshments—oysters and ice cream—will be for sale after 6 o'clock. Proceeds for benefit of new Baptist church. Admission, 25 and 15 cents.
Ask your dealer for "Accomac," the only ten cent cigars sold for five cents. We court the friendship of dealers and request a trial order. Sold at the usual price for the best five cent cigars. Come on boys, old and young, take an interest in home manufacture and push it along. We give you what you can get nowhere else, by avoiding the jobber's profit and being satisfied with a small margin.
C. P. Caldwell, Luna Park, Onancock, Va.

Belle Haven.

Capt. Wm. J. Rue is spending the week in the State Capitol, Richmond.
Mr. John Friend, a prominent business man of Danville, is visiting his brother, Rev. Chas. Friend.
Miss Margaret Disharoon, of Philadelphia, is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. Samuel H. Pusey.
It is understood, that a large acreage of tomatoes will be planted for the C. F. Chase Packing Co., of Belle Haven, the largest crop in the history of the factory.
Mr. George C. Walker recently brought in town 39 head of horses and mules, sold them all and is now in the city buying another supply—practically a cash business, which shows that farming pays.
Mr. James Wilson, a worthy citizen and prominent Baptist, died after a month's illness of Bright's disease, on Monday and was buried on Wednesday in the family burying ground on the farm of his nephew, Mr. P. C. Savage, near this place.
Mr. A. J. Doughty, a produce broker, of Philadelphia, while on a short visit to his father, Benj. O. Doughty, of Exmore, paid his friends in Belle Haven a pleasant business call. Mr. Doughty is certainly a hustler and deserves to be heard from again.
Mr. H. S. Lowe, of the firm of Morris & Lowe Bros., of Delmar, has moved one of the company's large mills on the land of A. N. H. Mapp and will cut more than a million feet of first growth pine and oak this winter and the coming spring. It means incidentally a wood harvest for Belle Haven.
The public school of this place is doing excellent work under the management of Misses Mary R. Kellam and Anna J. Winder, but unfortunately out of more than 90 available pupils for the past two years only enough to justify the employment of two teachers could be induced to attend. All thinking persons agree that it is a shame to tolerate such carelessness in a matter of so vital importance. If the children were only horses Belle Haven would have a prize race track. But there are signs of an awakening—one among which may be reckoned the fact that a number of substantial citizens are purchasing lots in town with the intention of building homes looking forward to a high school in which to educate their children.
Harborton.
Cats are scarce in this vicinity, war having been declared on them.
Mr. B. P. Penny, inspector, with the United Electric Railways, is home on a vacation.
The Daughters of Liberty are doing some good work and hustling. Eleven were initiated Friday of last week.
The highway surveyors were down last week and laid off the Hoffman Avenue channel, from Saw Mill Point to Edwards Cove—red buoys by day white lights at night.
The many friends of Mrs. W. M. Taylor and Mrs. J. A. Hutchinson, who are in Baltimore under medical treatment, will be glad to hear that they are improving at last reports. We hope to see them with their families before long.
A birthday party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Turner at their residence, Red Buoy, last Wednesday, in honor of their daughter, Elva. Quite a number of her little friends were invited and accepted and a very pleasant evening was spent.
The strike that was ordered by Union No. 23 of the actors and actresses union was won by the strikers after a hard fight, the managers agreeing to all conditions. Much credit is due walking delegates, E. Adams and J. Taylor for the way they handled the strikers, no violence or destruction of property taking place during the whole strike.
A cotillion was given by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roach at their residence, Seaview, on Saturday. The cotillion was led by Marvin Evans. The music was furnished by Professor Stanley Hutchinson's orchestra. At midnight a royal supper was served which everybody did justice to. A good time was enjoyed by all and on leaving time was unanimously voted that host and hostess were "two jolly good fellows." Among those present were: Misses Ella Mears, Elva Hutchinson, Mabel Turner, Lenora Chandler, Kate and Grace Hutchinson, Irene, Gladys and Katherine Read and Hilda Evans; Messrs. Neely and Raymond Hutchinson, Paul Turner, Claude Stewart, Fawcett Dize, Howard Adams, Harry and Lloyd Williams and Harold Barulson.
New Church.
Mr. John Rowley, of Chincoteague, is visiting our cashier, Mr. Claude Matthews.
Raffles and skating are the favorite games and sports of the lads and lasses at present.
A fun loving party, consisting of Misses Carrie Matthews, Josie Tull, Nola Yingling, Florence Covington; Messrs. Walter Ent, and Lester Poulson visited Wagram Pond, Tuesday afternoon, and found skating fine.
A very slight form of measles has been attacking our inhabitants for the past three weeks and has greatly interfered with the attendance at school, as the children are the principal victims. Those suffering with one or both are Miss Carrie Hutchinson, Mrs. Annie Davis, son and daughter, Mr. B. L. Payne's little boys and Master Edgar Davis.
Don't wait until the last of the week before attending our white sale, as there will be many items sold that we cannot duplicate. Remember the date, February 11th to 15th inclusive.
R. L. Shield & Co.
Corn wanted for cash at 65 cents per bushel, delivered at our store at Parksley Station, Va.
Parksley Manufacturing Co.

Parksley.

Mr. A. P. Platt, of Hazleton, Pa., was here a few days ago.
Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Bennett, former residents, were at the Parksley Hotel recently.
Mrs. Thomas R. Ward, Jr., of Albany, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. R. Bennett.
Mr. W. J. Lilliston, committee clerk in House of Delegates at Richmond during the present session, made a short visit to his family here recently.
Messrs. D. H. Johnson and H. T. Mason, two of the prominent merchants here, are each confined to their room, the former with grip, the latter with rheumatism.
Miss Grace L. Bundick, of Pastor-la, died in Baltimore, Saturday, Feb. 1st inst., of gastritis, aged 45 years. She with her sister, Mrs. E. P. Byrd, started for Baltimore for treatment by steamer Thursday, January 23d, but owing to a severe storm at that time did not reach there until Saturday. She never improved and died a week hence. She was a lady of fine Christian character, well and favorably known by a large circle of friends, who sincerely regret her death. She leaves three sisters, Mrs. E. P. Byrd, Mrs. C. L. Byrd and Mrs. W. T. Wright. Funeral services were conducted over her remains at Zion Baptist Church Wednesday morning by Rev. R. F. Staples, and interment made in the family burying ground, near that place.
Silva.
Mrs. W. E. Pettit and little daughter are confined to the house with la grippe.
In spite of the severe wind our minister, Mr. Jones, filled his appointment Sunday.
Mr. Oley Pilchard and Mr. Maurice Pilchard, of Parksley, visited their old home in this vicinity, Saturday.
Remember the big time we are going to have at the schoolhouse, February the fourteenth. Be sure and come. Those oysters will be good and remember it is leap year. Boys you know what that means.
Church Entertainments.
The Atlantic M. P. Church will serve an oyster supper on February 14th, from 5 to 7 p. m. There will be a lecture in evening by Rev. J. E. Hearn, of Temperanceville. Admission to lecture 10 cents. Proceeds for benefit of church.
Committee.
On the evening of February 14th, the people of Mappsburg will render the drama, entitled "The Last Loaf." It will be given at Painter Hall but for the benefit of Garrison's Church. Come prepared to enjoy a good laugh at Dick Bustle, who has changed both his name and color since the "Deacon's Tribulations." Bring your handkerchief too, for the pathos of Mrs. Ashton will make you recourse to tears. Don't forget to come and help a good cause Friday night—if the weather is inclement come Saturday night.
Church Notes.
Mr. J. F. E. Clark, a student, who will graduate from Union Theological Seminary next spring, will preach on Sunday, February 9th, as follows: Makemie Church at 11 o'clock a. m.; Clark Chapel at 3:30 o'clock p. m.; at Onancock Presbyterian Church at 7:30 o'clock p. m. Mr. Clark is a native of Abingdon, Va., and a graduate of King College. It is expected that a congregational meeting will be held immediately after the service at Makemie Church, for the purpose of calling a pastor, if the way be clear.
At a meeting of committees of Drummondtown, Onley and Hollies Baptist Churches at Onley on Monday, it was decided, that it was in the best interest of all of them, that Hollies sever her relations with Drummondtown Baptist Church and join in the work with Broadway and Harborton; and that Drummondtown, Onley and Baker Memorial Churches unite in calling a pastor together.
Sale of Valuable Real Estate.
By virtue of a power of attorney from Mitchell A. Spence and wife, I shall sell, on Tuesday, February 25, 1908, at 2 o'clock p. m., on the premises at Quinby, Va., that certain house and lot belonging to the said Spence. For particulars see posters or apply to undersigned.
G. Walter Mapp.
January 25, 1908.
Warner Ames, special commissioner, will, on Saturday, the 8th day of February, next, sell at public auction at 2:30 o'clock p. m., in the town of Onancock, the very valuable real estate of which Littleton D. Ayres, died seized and possessed, siting, lying and being near the said town. For further information see posters or special commissioner.
J. Harry Rew, attorney for Edward T. Parks, will sell at public auction at Parksley, on Saturday, February 8th, 2:30 p. m., storehouse and lot in town of Parksley lately occupied by M. S. Kent. A splendid opportunity to obtain a prominent business site in this hustling and thriving town. For particulars see posters.
Mr. E. T. Powell, ex-treasurer of Accomac, in a recent letter to the Piedmont Guano Co., of Baltimore, says: I used your fertilizers last Spring and never got better results heretofore by Harry H. Wilford and George A. Wilford, who will pay all bills against, and receive all moneys due to the old firm. The office of the Company is at the same place as formerly, on Market Street, Pocomoke City, Maryland.
H. H. Wilford, G. A. Wilford, Quince Ashburn.
FOR SALE—A mare five years old, sound and gentle to all harness weight 1,100 pounds. Wish to sell because have no use for her.
Jos. W. Taylor, Jenkins Bridge, Va.

Social Event.

The leading social function of the season was given at the home of Senator and Mrs. Ben T. Gunter on Wednesday evening in honor of their sister, Miss Joe Fisher. Promptly at six o'clock a most delicious dinner was served consisting of all the delicacies of the season. Among those present were: Mr. Barton K. Lilliston, Miss Florence Browne, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. DeCormis, Mr. Edward J. Ayres, Miss Marcie Duncan, Mr. G. L. Doughty, Jr., Miss Margaret Lilliston, Mr. B. T. Fisher and Miss Ruth A. Tyler. After dinner the happy couples repaired to the parlor where they indulged in many fascinating games.
